

UAACCE

Utah Association for Adult, Community, and Continuing Education

by Sandra Grant

UAACCE members serve a variety of adult job seekers. Those who are preparing to enter the workforce for the first time, to those who are changing careers after many years, to those who want to complete a GED certificate and/or Adult High School completion, to technical skills (vocation).

The membership of UAACCE includes personnel from school districts, colleges, universities, applied technology centers, community colleges, government agencies, nonprofit organizations and the general public. UAACCE members can help adults by:

Improving Job seeking skills by providing quality educational opportunities such as:

- Literacy-Reading & ESOL (English Speakers of Other Languages) classes
- Job Skills classes (Resumes, Job Interviewing, etc.)
- Other teacher instructed classes (computers, math, writing etc.)
- Computer-assisted learning (Math & Reading)
- Academic tutoring, Homework assistance
- Child Care

Assist in Job Search with:

- Job Shadowing
- Career Assessments and Evaluations/Career Counseling

Job Seekers benefit in becoming a member of UAACCE:

1. Scholarships amounting up to a maximum of $450.00. To help members attend trainings to develop job skills necessary to be a successful employee or help you become more effective in your job role.
2. Awards: Opportunities to be nominated for many types of awards, which look great on your job resume.
3. Newsletters: It provides announcements about training opportunities, job openings, current and future events, articles about exemplary programs, and reports of state and national developments.
4. Networking: An effective way to tell everyone you know you're looking for work. Help you keep informed about new programs and issues that affect your job field.
5. Many more benefits: UAACCE Membership Directory, National Affiliations, etc.
6. Grant notifications listed on website.

UAACCE: 250 E 500 South
PO Box 144200
SLC Ut 84114-4200

website: <http://www.uaacce.org>
Contact person: Sandra Grant
801 538-7844 sgrant@usoe.k12.ut.us